

How quickly can you solve this crossword, using the picture clues?

Can you guess which of the objects I've drawn is the odd one out?

IT'S AMAZING!

The longest car ever built anywhere in the world was constructed in 1985. It was so long that it had TEN wheels - which isn't so surprising because it also had a swimming pool in the back! Must've been tough trying to find a parking space...

