

Nursery Rhymes

- 1 A personal tragedy involving considerable flock loss, with consoling words in conclusion.
- 2 After achieving light elevation, a couple of water-carriers become casualties.
- 3 Infantry and cavalry are incapable of reconstruction after an accident of quite small dimensions.
- 4 The male offspring of a musician "beats it" after committing a criminal offence.
- 5 A damsel of considerable years in a walking abode.
- 6 Invitation to hymn an arrangement in honour of a small (extinct) coin, which has no apparent connection with a small quantity of cereal.
- 7 A request to a confectioner to undertake considerable violence.
- 8 An enquiry addressed to a lady of uncertain temperament concerning her horticultural activities.
- 9 A dilemma of food service arising from urgent demands for an evening meal.
- 10 A feline beast battles with a mythological creature for the possession of regalia. Result: victory for former.
- 11 Differences of taste fail to upset domestic tranquillity; rather they result in effecting economy.
- 12 A muddle in the farm. Alarm sounded. Guard asleep on duty.
- 13 Enquiry into a case of murder. The guilty one confesses, and numerous parties are quoted as witnesses and as accessories after the fact.
- 14 The small daughter is chastised for soiling raiment, incurred by association with grate-refuse during an effort to promote bodily warmth.
- 15 An idea for harnessing natural power for duties incumbent upon a mother. It is realised that disastrous results would follow should the power become excessive.